Situated on 2 acres of bushland, this large 4-bedroom family home is ideally located in Maldon, just 1km to the town hub. The mud-brick home is in the centre of the large allotment, along a winding driveway, and enjoys good natural light. The rustic interior styling utilises a range of natural materials and features exposed beams, timber panelling, red brick flooring and corrugated iron cabinet doors. Offering 2 living spaces, 3 generous bedrooms, a study-4th bedroom, bathroom, kitchen, and laundry – plenty of room for families at any stage of life. - Character-filled 4-bedroom mud-brick home with warm timber finishes in a natural bushland setting. - Three bedrooms with robes plus study/4th bedroom; the master bedroom opens to an outside patio. - Two generous living areas, including a lounge with a woodfire heater and adjoining sitting and dining rooms, plus a large family rumpus room. - Updated family bathroom with double shower, feature tiling and a separate WC. - Galley kitchen with timber benchtops, 900mm cooktop, dishwasher, and plenty of cupboard space. - Outdoors find a covered entertaining area, a patio leading off the family living room/master bedroom and a paved courtyard with pergola. - Long winding driveway, carport, garage/workshop; plenty of parking for vehicles, caravan, or boat. - Mature trees throughout the property, paved walkways, cleared paddock. - Connected to town services. - Situated 1km from the heart of Maldon, within walking distance of the historic steam train.
