Offers from $1.19 million

Set on a 591m² corner block in one of Brightwaters most sought-after streets and opposite the park, this home has been designed with family living in mind. Entering through the double timber doors, your master bedroom is directly to the right. Tucked away at the front of the property, this spacious room features plantation shutters (a quality feature continued through the home) as well as a walk-in robe that is big enough for your whole family! Your ensuite features a double vanity and oversized shower and stone benches. A dedicated study is perfect for those that need to work from home, or for the kids needing a quiet place to complete their homework. The space on offer in this home is second to none, there is a rumpus room, with direct access to the alfresco area, or the kid's playroom that sits between bedrooms three and four. The main living space is large and provides both formal and informal living spaces, while the open plan kitchen is equipped with a large pantry and island bench. Featuring quality appliances, stone bench tops and lots of cupboard space, this is the perfect chefs space. With zoned, ducted air conditioning and ceiling fans throughout, you can keep cool throughout these heat waves. On a private corner block there is room to add a pool and or store your toys with access to the street. Brightwater offers everything you need to enjoy the perfect Sunshine Coast lifestyle. With ample walking tracks, the beautiful lake, shops, the tavern and the Brightwater School, you will love living here. For those commuting, you re only a few minutes from the Bruce Highway making it easy access to Brisbane.
