

16 Quay Street, Bowen, Qld 4805

Sold House

Tuesday, 14 November 2023

16 Quay Street, Bowen, Qld 4805

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Area: 809 m2

Type: House

Kyli McCrae
0438724700

$820,000

Wake up and enjoy the ocean view from this incredible beachfront property. From the comfort of your own home you can watch over the paddleboarders, kiteboarders, swimmers, horse riders and dog walkers who all love this stretch of the beach. Long white stretches of glorious sand and crystal clear water await the new owner of this premium waterfront property. Located right on the waterfront, this property offers you not only incredible ocean and beach views, but you also look out over the Whitsunday Islands and even the twinkling lights at night of Bowen's famous jetty. At the end of the street (just two houses away) you can stroll down and pop a crab pot in the creek that opens out into the bay. You don't even need a boat to catch fresh mud crab for dinner. The beach runs for miles and offers a very relaxing way to either start your day or wind down as you go for a long stroll with the kids and the family dog. Let's start ticking on your checklist: ☑ Ocean Views - YES, YES, YES!! ☑ Beachfront - walk across the road to stand on the sand - YES! ☑ Entertaining area overlooking that ocean view - YES! ☑ Spacious & modern three bedroom family home - YES! ☑ Two pac kitchen with a butlers pantry - YES! ☑ TWO beautifully appointed bathrooms - YES! Do you want more? How about we also include a rear entertaining area, spacious shed in the backyard, a rain water tank and even solar panels. All of this is ready and waiting for the new owner to come in and relax and enjoy this wonderful property. This home offers you the seaside escape you have been yearning for. Don't miss this chance to capture your new beach lifestyle. Book your private inspection today or take advantage of the online virtual tour if you are unable to see the property in person. We are ready to help you move to the beach today.