

16 Tara Street, Sylvania, NSW 2224

Sold House

Wednesday, 15 May 2024

16 Tara Street, Sylvania, NSW 2224

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 4

Type: House

Terry Flaskos
0295226999

Contact agent

Step into the comfort of this inviting home, where timeless charm meets the practicality of contemporary living. Nestled in a tranquil neighbourhood, this brick free-standing house offers a welcoming ambiance that's perfect for creating lasting memories with family and friends. Plus, situated on a potential duplex site STCA, it presents an enticing prospect for investors seeking to maximise returns or owner-occupiers desiring flexibility and potential. With plenty of space to accommodate your family's needs, these L-shaped living and dining areas adorned with elegant floorboards throughout, provide a versatile layout for relaxing or entertaining guests. While the spacious backyard offers ample room for outdoor enjoyment, complete with a gentle slope that adds character to the landscape.- Three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a generously sized main bedroom- Air-conditioning, polished timber floorboards, electric appliances- Located just minutes away from Southgate and Westfield Miranda shopping centres, public transport, schools and cafes Whether you're looking for a cosy family home or an investment opportunity with potential, this house is sure to impress. Don't miss your chance to make this your own slice of paradise. For more information contact Terry Flaskos | 0412 444 832