Nestled in a coveted locale, this charming full-brick residence offers a blend of period elegance and modern convenience, inviting you to embrace its endless potential. Lovingly held for over 70 years and occupying a prime north-facing block on the high side of the street, properties of this offering are increasingly rare. Exuding warmth and character, the interior boasts soaring ceilings and a cosy fireplace, creating an inviting ambiance. The generously proportioned bedrooms offer ample space, complemented by an additional sunroom that serves as a versatile family room. The updated kitchen and bathroom provide modern comforts, while the separate brick outbuilding, previously utilised as a workshop/shed, presents an exciting opportunity to convert into a home office, studio or a teenagers' retreat. A North-facing backyard with covered entertaining area and direct access to the undiscovered Taro Street Reserve, complete with play equipment is perfect for children and pets.
