16 Tea Trees Avenue is a beautiful family home offering one lucky buyer the perfect aspects of both lowset and two-story living!

This warm family home has been cleverly designed to make the most of the elevation and views.

This home maintains the practicality of a busy household offering all living and bedrooms on one level with the garage on the lower level!!

Wide open spaces and are definitely a key feature of this home - from the expansive open plan kitchen, dining and living area to the separate family room - this is a family home you will be proud to call home.

The out door patio allow the family to maximise living in Queensland - and is perfect spot to watch the kids or pets play In the back yard - especially if you put a pool in!! which is certainly an option with this property!

Comfort all year round with air conditioning and fans throughout and a yard that does not disappoint in any way! - level, big enough for trampoline, swings or a game of backyard soccer and its low maintenance for the busy family!

The chef in the family is going to be kept smiling too - in your own modern well equipped kitchen - loads of storage, stone bench tops and of course great quality appliances!

This home will be highly sought after and we are so excited to bring such a lovely and loved home to market ~!!
