Built and enjoyed by the same family for 43 years, this attractive home will certainly impress with its family friendly location, superb valley and district views and flexible layout. It enjoys a sensational north facing setting on the quiet street, welcoming into interiors that are substantial, bright and well laid-out. A family room with fireplace, living room, dining room and TV room offer plenty of space to relax or retreat to, whilst the enormous multi-purpose lower level with 5th bedroom, kitchenette, study and bathroom provides options. Entertaining is delightful around the quality chef's kitchen and on the large rear deck. Peaceful yet connected, it's footsteps to city and school bus services, Davidson High School, Mimosa, Glenrose Village and bushwalking trails. • Quiet setting, beautiful flowering gardens, verandah • Bright interiors, family room with a slow combustion fire • Hardwood floors, spacious living room, dining room • Gas bayonet, chef's stone gas kitchen, island bench • Bosch suite of appliances, sliders open out to the deck • Substantial covered alfresco deck with district outlook • TV room, four generous upper-level bedrooms, robes • Master with ensuite, lower-level 5th bedroom and office • External access lower-level with kitchenette and bath • Vast storage areas, cellar, workshop, double garage
