Welcome to this extraordinary property that offers a rare combination of space, flexibility, and an enviable location. With up to 5 bedrooms spread over two levels, this home is perfect for families seeking room to grow. Nestled on a substantial corner block of 758m², this brick veneer home with a tile roof is an absolute standout. Multiple off-street parking spaces, including undercover parking for one car, provide convenience for all your vehicle needs. Enjoy the picturesque outlook and embrace the recreation opportunities next door at Roseneath Park. Plus, with the popular Pep Pizza just across the road.. Step inside the main floor to discover an expansive, open-plan living space illuminated by a stunning vaulted timber ceiling. The updated kitchen features a central island bench, providing a hub for culinary delights and family gatherings. On this level, you'll find four bedrooms, three of which boast built-in robes for effortless storage. The well-appointed family bathroom showcases both a bath and a separate shower, catering to the diverse needs of your family. Venture downstairs to discover a sizable rumpus room, accompanied by an additional bedroom, bathroom, and laundry facilities.
