This huge 3.45-hectare property provide boundless opportunities for an astute buyer wanting to develop sweat equity in a well-located property. The property with a shed and rain water tank is zoned General Rural with a neglected house that needs lots of work. Alternatively, demolish the existing house and build your own dream home. It is located seven minutes' drive to Joondalup CBD with its university, hospital campus, shopping centre, trains station and restaurants and only 3 minutes to primary and high schools in Banksia Grove and Carramar
