Nestled here in the charming semi-rural setting of Quoiba, where the countryside meets the city, with uninterrupted views of Bass Strait lies a unique opportunity to create your dream family home. If you're in search of a property where spacious living and captivating views harmoniously coexist, look no further than 160 Wrenswood Drive, Quoiba. Built in 1986 on a sprawling three-acre block, this property invites you to live a life of tranquility and space. As you step inside, you'll be greeted by a generously sized family home featuring four bedrooms and a study. For lovers of fine timbers you will appreciate the exposed sassafras beams in the living areas creating a warm and inviting atmosphere, complimented by the charming sassafras kitchen. On top of this you will find accents of both Huon Pine and Celery Top Pine and a stunning parquetry floor in the rumpus room. Entertaining is a breeze, thanks to the expansive undercover outdoor area, complete with versatile cafe blinds. This space is designed to be enjoyed year-round, regardless of the ever-changing Tasmanian weather. Plus, you'll benefit from a 5.5-kilowatt solar system, reducing your energy bills and your carbon footprint. For those with a love of adventuring, the property boasts an extra-height carport providing room for a large boat or caravan or both. Additionally, there's a double lock-up garage to ensure all your prized possessions find a secure home. Don't miss the exceptional opportunity to make this property your forever home. - Sassafras exposed beams and kitchen cabinetry - Large master suite with both built in and walk in robes - Situated on a 3 acre block - 5.5-kilowatt solar system - Large enclosed entertainment area - Double lock up garage with rumpusMcGrath Devonport believe information contained is accurate however interested parties should rely upon their own enquires.
