In the high-amenity corner of the CBD with vast views over the concrete jungle, this prestigious 16th floor Instana apartment maximizes a good look downtown with a quiet private balcony. Appointed to this architectural building's elite standard, this cozy three-bedroom home stars a prestige appliance kitchen with modern appliances and benchtops, two large designer bathrooms with discreet laundry facilities and reverse-cycle air-conditioning/heating. There's even a prized Queen Victoria Market precinct location - a walk to Melbourne Central and Emporium's retail therapy, RMIT and University of Melbourne's educational opportunity and Flagstaff Stations rail and tram connections.
