Built in the 1958, then renovated and extended in 1978, the home is well maintained and ready for you to add your style and personal touches. A lovely tranquil garden to meander or picnic on the lawn. Designed so that the home can be closed off and have two separate 3 bedroom homes with front access to one and side access to the other. Currently the home is disposed as 6 bedrooms, main with ensuite and built in robes, there are 3 other bedrooms downstairs and two more bedrooms upstairs. Besides the ensuite, there is a family bathroom and another separate shower and toilet. The kitchen and open living room downstairs has a glorious view over the delightful gardens. Upstairs is another small kitchen area and expansive room utilised as a billiard/family room opening out to the balcony that enjoys the valuable northerly aspect and winter sun. The beautifully maintained and established garden has a shade house and lawn for children and pets to enjoy, or meander around the path leading through the garden that creates a mystery tour for children and parents alike. There is no shortage of car accommodation with off street parking for the caravan, trailer, double length carport and a garage. Convenient to local shops and supermarket, handy to transport and schools, a wonderful family home and garden - inspection is highly recommended. We hope to see you at the open inspection of this unique family home or Contact Simon O'Donohue 0433 785 550 or Annie Need 0412 551 988 with any questions.
