This home boasts panoramic views of the rural landscape and the mountains beyond. It is an ideal property for those seeking more space and room to keep horses or cattle. The interior features warm timber floorboards and high ceilings and consists of two bedrooms, a sunroom, a bathroom, and an open-plan dining/kitchen/living room equipped with air conditioning and a slow-combustion wood heater-step outside to the patio, garage, vegetable gardens and grazing land. The region is renowned for its picturesque terrain, featuring national parks, breathtaking waterfalls, hiking trails, camping sites, fishing spots, and numerous beaches. Just a short drive away lies Bellingen, offering a variety of coffee shops, restaurants, schools, and a delightful village lifestyle. It is the perfect place to escape to the countryside and start a new chapter of your life. Give us a call today to arrange an inspection.
