Welcome to 1659 Princes Hwy, Heywood – a charming haven nestled on 14.3 acres in a farming zone, just outside Heywood and a mere 10 minutes from the coastal allure of Portland. This delightful property boasts a character-filled residence with 4 bedrooms, or 3 bedrooms plus a study, complemented by a bonus studio space outside – an ideal retreat for teenagers or hobbyist. The home exudes character with cathedral ceilings gracing the kitchen and living area, adorned with beautiful original floorboards that add warmth and charm. The stunningly renovated bathroom features a claw foot bath, offering a touch of luxury. Stay cozy year-round with the convenience of reverse cycle heating and wood heating. Outside, the property is equipped with a 4-bay machinery shed and additional shedding, providing ample storage for all your needs. For the equine enthusiast, horse stables and a round yard are ready to accommodate your four-legged companions. Old cattle yards, a small shearing shed, chicken pens, and a bore feeding the troughs showcase the versatility of this property. The land is divided into 10 paddocks, offering endless possibilities for agricultural pursuits or creating your own rural retreat. Embrace the great lifestyle this property affords, with the space and amenities to live your country dream. Don't miss the chance to make 1659 Princes Hwy your new home – a unique blend of character, comfort, and country living.
