

166 Carrington Avenue, Hurstville, NSW 2220

Sold House

Thursday, 11 April 2024

166 Carrington Avenue, Hurstville, NSW 2220

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 606 m2

Type: House

Haydon Sacilotto
0295807111

Fraser Glen
0295807111

$2,760,000

Grand in proportions and flooded with natural light throughout, this architecturally designed, double brick home epitomises contemporary family living. This oversized residence delivers an idyllic lifestyle opportunity on a large and sunny 606sqm parcel of land. Centrally located in the heart of Hurstville with a versatile floorplan boasting multiple formal and informal living areas as well as four oversized bedrooms with the option of an additional self-contained residence downstairs, the generous proportions are sure to impress. The modern kitchen offers gas cooking, oven and dishwasher as well as ample cupboard/bench space. Flowing effortlessly off the kitchen with grand high ceilings, the dining and lounge room area is perfect for easy family living and entertaining. Overlooking the private and level grassed yard, this area creates a beautiful hub for the home. Features Include: • Double brick construction. • Multiple living and dining areas featuring high ceilings throughout. • Four large bedrooms, all complete with built in wardrobes, two with separate balconies, main featuring an ensuite and walk-in wardrobe. • Ground floor guest suite is the perfect for those requiring in law accommodation or an additional space for the growing family. • Kitchen with s/steel appliances, gas cooking and plenty of cupboard/bench space. • Alfresco entertaining overlooking the private and level grassed yard. • Double lock up garage with internal access & additional storage options. • Main bathroom complete with double vanity and separate bath/shower. • Ducted air-conditioning, Internal laundry. Offering a host of modern conveniences with a flexible and versatile floorplan, all within a short walking distance to Hurstville Westfields, schools, train station & Hurstville Oval. The generous proportions, light filled interiors and double brick construction make this family home a must to inspect.