This weatherboard home is bound to capture the interest of those wanting a home base in a central location. With this prospect, you are within close distance to public transport, cafes, kindergartens/schools including Preston Primary and Preston High School. The charm of this home has provided long-term comfort and now it's time to decide whether to further finesse the dream or invest with confidence. The floor plan with high ceilings and solid timber flooring incorporates three spacious bedrooms and a family bathroom. There is also a decent kitchen and meals area along with a great living room. Added features also include a massive laundry, outdoor courtyard, ducted heating, split system heating/cooling, ample storage, and a car space on title.
