Discover the perfect blend of classic charm and modern convenience in this spacious and well-presented period home on the edge of Miller Street Village. Ready for immediate occupancy, this elegant residence offers a comfortable living experience with fantastic opportunities for renovation and extension (STCA), making it a versatile choice for both families and investors. Light filled with lofty ceilings and polished timber floors, it features two double bedrooms with ceiling fans and built-in robes, spotless central bathroom with shower over bath, tidy kitchen with gas stovetop and pantry, expansive open plan dining and living plus separate study. Outside, the property unfolds into a surprisingly deep backyard, offering a private garden with immaculate lawns, established trees, and a handy garden shed. Other highlights include hydronic heating, storage, and separate laundry. Situated in a sought-after location, this home is a short walk from the serene Merri Creek trails parklands, local schools (zoned to Bell Primary School & Coburg High School), vibrant Miller Street/Gilbert Road shops, and trams making it an ideally positioned home for those seeking both tranquility and urban connectivity.
