Set behind a classic picket fence, this home boasts tasteful updates that have been successfully integrated with period features offering a delightful first impression. The floorplan comprises three bedrooms, family bathroom, light filled open plan living, dining, kitchen and family room. Traditional high ceilings and timber flooring add to the charm of the home and a ducted heating system, and an air conditioner ensure comfort all year round. The undercover alfresco easily accessed at the rear the home, is the perfect place to enjoy views of the back garden and is suitable for year-round entertaining. The back garden with little nooks for reading and relaxing, provides an amazing colour backdrop and a haven for birdlife. Rear access leads to the double garage and garden shed. Set on a generous 673m² (approx.) within walking distance to the centre of town this home provides a comfortable lifestyle in a relaxed community atmosphere.
