Step inside this Bronte beach house and be transported to a private paradise that takes global cues to capture the spirit of residences in Ibiza, Greece and Mexico with its sense of space, openness and connection with the outdoors. Set on a private 670sqm with panoramic northerly views over Bronte Gully as a tranquil backdrop to all three levels, the newly refreshed five-bedroom home's bespoke interiors create a soul-soothing oasis of calm with elegant curved lines, blush pink finishes and aged brass accents that capture the essence of laidback beachside luxury. Without doubt one of the most inspiring homes on what is widely regarded as Bronte's best street, the property has been conceived as a family compound with multiple living areas and sprawling resort-style gardens with a 12m heated pool, sunken trampoline, basketball hoop and cubby house. Every detail has been carefully curated with a palette of earthy tones and organic finishes that give the interiors a relaxed sense of glamour that will stand the test of time.
