On the top end of a 2421m² allotment in the heart of Goomeri is this classic renovators special. A solid building in general good condition, we are after someone to give her the love she deserves. An original 2 bedder, like most in this old timber town, graced with 10 ft ceilings, and the back verandah enclosed to provide kitchen and bathroom space, with the remainder of the home remaining largely original. The front verandah overlooks the almost $\frac{3}{4}$ acre paddock that spans Chippendal Creek and would be perfect for the kids pony. The home is set away from any roads and offers perfect seclusion should that be your desire. We do not accept responsibility for the accuracy of any information.
