Standing tall with an elevated position on 1934 sqm (approx.), this five-bedroom, four-bathroom EJ Lyons home commands attention with three storeys of spacious living. Its elevated position offers breathtaking panoramic views of the Barwon River, Barwon Heads and the rolling sand dunes of Ocean Grove. The stunning blue-mosaic pool, surrounding terrace and covered alfresco deck provide for year-round outdoor entertaining. Inside, one of three spacious living zones including a downstairs billiard room, formal lounge room and family room, plus large dining room and chef's kitchen, will ensure family and guests have plenty of space. Two study areas including a stunning second floor conversion complement the home's four bedrooms, and two separate remote-operated garages with extra security features can house more than three cars. Meticulously maintained and improved over the years, this home is a sanctuary for those dreaming of a coastal lifestyle for their family.
