Here is a great opportunity to purchase a very affordable investment property, close to the CBD. The property itself features two large bedrooms, spacious and comfortable living space, a well equipped kitchen with loads of storage and bench space, plus a family bathroom, which doubles as a laundry. The unit has the added features of its own private car space, making off street parking a breeze. The property is currently leased until 11/7/23 for $275pw, making this property a set and forget investment for the first timer or experienced investor. So don't let the banks take control of your financial future, take charge yourself and make this higher returning property a key feature in your investment portfolio.
