If you are looking for an apartment that offers light-filled living and is within an easy stroll to the best of what Port Macquarie has to offer, then your search may be over...welcome to 17/59 Church Street. Positioned on the sixth floor of an extremely, well maintained security building it offers renovated interiors and large, open plan living. As you walk out of the elevator, you enter a foyer with louvre panelling, allowing for the cross breeze to flow throughout the apartment. Open the door and you walk into a very spacious, open plan, air-conditioned living and dining with v-jay panelling and roll down, block out blinds. The modern kitchen is central to the living and offers stone bench tops, a waterfall breakfast bar, an abundance of storage, built in Smeg microwave and Miele dishwasher. The king-sized master suite features a WIR, plus an ensuite, whilst bedroom two will accommodate a queen-sized bed and is serviced by a large main bathroom with floor to ceiling tiles. Relax at the end of a long day on your private, north facing balcony with river and town views that captures the summer breezes and warming, winter sun. - Extra storage in the laundry- LED lights throughout- Security building- Rental potential of $550 per week- Single, remote garaging This fantastic apartment is within 350 metres to the CBD and is only a short walk to the waterways, an abundance of eateries and Town Beach.
