If you are on the hunt for the perfect family home or just a lovely large home in a super handy location, well look no further as we have found exactly what you're looking for! This home has plenty to offer and your family will love the sanctuary of the space as well as the light and privacy that also comes with this solid brick home. Conveniently located just over North Bundaberg which means you are only a short 5-minute drive to Bundaberg CBD, making everything right at your fingertips! Featuring 4 bedrooms all with built-in mirrored cupboards, ceiling fans and air conditioning. The master bedroom has an ensuite with a walk-in shower and large mirror vanity. The main bathroom showcases an extra-large walk-in shower, a vanity with ample storage and a bathtub. The main kitchen, living and dining is very open plan and features two opened living areas on either side of the main kitchen, living and dining space. Surrounding the home are large windows which create plenty of natural light exposure into the home. The backyard of this home is an entertainer's delight! There is a large undercover entertainment area which leads out into the pool area with the pool being surrounded by plants and greenery as well as a shad sail for those hot summer days! There is a large shed next to the pool as well as side gate access so you can store the boat or caravan. The property has a double lock up garage, secure entrance gate and is fully fenced. This gorgeous residence is ideal for purchases that require space, a generous block, a pool for the kids, a shed for dad, and all in a super handy location!
