Welcome to 17 Beachgrove Place, Geographe! Exceeding all expectations this drop-dead gorgeous home eclipses them all. Immaculate presentation, irresistible styling, warm welcoming interiors, tranquil settings, and highly functional light filled spaces combine to achieve a stunning home with ambience that is beyond compare. Located at the end of a secluded street, stunning pink blossoms welcome you and behind the picket fence a generous alcove makes for an adorable entry to the home and a delightful space to relax. Stepping inside the home just radiates at every turn with every detail considered. The large tranquil lounge is the perfect space to retreat to, while the master suite is serene and oversized. Walking down the wide hallway through French doors the heart of the home is revealed. At the centre is the kitchen that overlooks the dining area, open plan living, external timber deck area and the fully enclosed alfresco which is perfect for year-round relaxing and entertaining. Privately tucked away from the main living zone you will find massive storage cupboards, good sized minor bedrooms each with BIR's, direct access to the garage plus a generous main bathroom and laundry. Outside exudes cottage vibes with established greenery for a tranquil outdoor setting, an established vegetable garden, a garden shed plus room for your pet. Living in this beautiful home will also deliver you a blissful lifestyle. Right on the edge of central Busselton you will love the convenience of the City Centre and world famous Jetty just moments away, while the glorious beach is just a 700m walk. A viewing is a must for this home that is beyond compare. This idyllic home will not last long.
