Are you searching for an expansive family residence conveniently located just a short drive from Warrnambool? Nestled on just over one acre of land and adorned with well-established gardens, this home boasts solar panels, water tanks, sheds, and covered entertainment areas - everything you would wish for in your country retreat. The home is an exceptionally spacious three-bedroom home with large bedrooms, two large living spaces, plus a dedicated dining area. The kitchen has undergone a comprehensive renovation, featuring a wall of storage cupboards that offers ample space for a family's needs. Newly installed stone bench tops and timber flooring contribute to the modern aesthetic. Enhanced by high ceilings, these updates elevate the home's overall grandeur and spacious feel. The combined laundry and mud room prove to be ideal for the rural setting, catering to the needs of country living and working. The substantially generous double garage has remote-controlled roller doors and a dedicated study/office space, plus there are additional sheds on the property for all your storage needs. Clad in classic bluestone brick work, with bay windows and complemented by a verandah spanning the length of the home's facade, it exudes a charming homestead allure. This property is ideal for a growing family, offering abundant space for everyone and catering to the needs of those with a green thumb - enquire today to seize this perfect opportunity.....
