This lovely family home exudes warmth and comfort and has been lovingly renovated with the family in mind. Step inside to discover a spacious light, bright living room and modern kitchen with ample cupboard and bench space, including the convenience of a dishwasher for easy clean up. These areas flow through to a delightful sunroom, that beckons for peaceful mornings with your favourite brew. The three generous sized bedrooms each contain built-in wardrobes, with a lovely ensuite located off the master bedroom. The family bathroom is centrally located along with the functional and well-appointed laundry and separate toilet. Nestled on a 558sqm block of land, this property also features a fully fenced yard, while the garage space for one car, along with extra storage, caters to your practical needs. Not to mention, the external office space is a bonus for those who require a dedicated workspace within the comfort of their home or those who require the additional storage. Built in 1985, this house has been lovingly maintained and is now waiting for new memories to be created within its walls. Don't let the chance to own this fantastic property in Youngtown pass you by.
