Superbly positioned within walking distance to Melbourne's leading private schools, including MLC, Trinity, and Xavier College, this sun drenched Edwardian residence's impressively generous and adaptable floor plan perfectly caters to family life. The seamless flow between indoor and landscaped outdoor spaces is perfect for enjoying the open living and dining room, while the well appointed kitchen with a walk in pantry and European appliances easily caters to every occasion. Streaming with natural light and enjoying a private garden patio, the lavishly proportioned main bedroom boasts direct access to the bathroom with a spa. It is matched with three additional bedrooms and a second bathroom. Upstairs, the convenience of a retreat offers further flexibility, with a powder room, room to lounge or work, and convenient roof storage access. With ducted heating, air conditioning, ample parking and easy access to trams, you can easily explore the vibrant dining scene along Glenferrie Road and High St. Embrace the lifestyle you deserve in this exceptional period home that effortlessly combines elegance, comfort, and convenience.
