Welcome to 17 Carlisle Street, this stunningly renovated 4-bedroom home, situated in the highly sought after Bellvista Estate is a must inspect for anyone seeking space and comfort. Set on a large 665m² block with additional side access, this is the perfect home for families with a few extra toys. Located in a quiet street at the edge of the Bellvista Estate with a bushland backdrop, the home has been wonderfully renovated throughout, all you'll need to do is move in. The kitchen is certainly the heart of the home, with ample storage and new appliances while also offering views of the sparkling in-ground pool. Multiple large living spaces either side of the kitchen ensure that everyone has their own space or gives you multiple options when it comes to entertaining. The home is comprised of 4 bedrooms, all with new carpet and built-in robes, with the master also featuring a walk-in robe, ensuite and direct access to the outdoor entertaining area. The spare bedrooms are all at the opposite end of the house, giving everyone their own space and are serviced by the main family bathroom. The backyard is the definition of an entertainer's delight, featuring a massive undercover alfresco and leafy bushland backdrop with no rear neighbours. The pool is a real treat, especially in our hot summer months and is accompanied by the cosy shaded gazebo. There is also side access down one side of the house, perfect for any extra trailers or vehicles that need to be safely secured. The home also features an internal laundry, security screens throughout, double lockup garage and solar on the roof. All this while also being located only a short walk from Unity College and the local shopping village, as well as being a short drive to Caloundra and its world class beaches.
