Privately placed in an acclaimed circuit position overlooking the central gardens, you will find all the necessary factors for fantastic family living here. Secluded amongst a small community of houses, this particular address begins with two-bedrooms with built-in robes and heaters on the ground floor joined by a family bathroom. Along the rear lies the double garage with internal access. Upstairs, relaxed living and dining options are set over an immersive open-concept design, with windows throughout infusing the area in natural light. Tiled flooring ensures easy-cleans highly prized by all. Overlooking the main living zone and flaunting stainless-steel appliances and breakfast bar, the kitchen is well-placed for serving antipasto platters or hardy family meals. Across the living room lies the garden-facing balcony, offering superb outdoor meals opportunities. Features include a first-floor master with walk-in robe, heater, and ensuite; split-system A/C in the lounge, and separate laundry on the ground floor. A short drive takes you to The Avenue SC, Eden Rise Village, and Casey Central, with easy access onto major arterial roads and the M1 freeway.
