This stunning, double story, four bedroom home offers space, comfort and convenience. The upper level is the main living level of the home, the covered verandah filling the home with cooling breezes, the ideal place to soak in the stunning views over Lismore. Accomodation on this level is by way of three good size bedrooms with built-in's, ceiling fans, the main is complete with it's own en-suite. The modern kitchen is finished with stone benchtops and adjoins the separate dining and cosy lounge room. Downstairs there is the fourth bedroom and two extra utility rooms, third bathroom and a huge extra living area complete with another full sized kitchen. The flexibility of the home makes it perfect for multi-generational living, potential additional income or those wanting to work from home. Situated on a large block, the home also has the added bonus of solar and there is plenty of outdoor space to create your own oasis to entertain family and friends. Located within close proximity to schools, parks and amenities, this immaculate home is one not to miss.
