Immerse yourself in the vibrant heart of New Norfolk with this distinguished property, offering a blend of historical allure and modern living. Located on Circle St, a stone's throw from the bustling high street, this residence is perfectly positioned to enjoy the town's cafes, shops, and the ever-popular farmers market, making it a haven for those seeking convenience and community spirit. This remarkable home stands proudly on a generous parcel, showcasing a perfect union of space and design. Built with meticulous attention to detail, it features a spacious layout encompassing multiple bedrooms and bathrooms, ensuring ample room for family living and guests alike. The residence is anchored by a warm and inviting living area, where large windows flood the space with natural light, highlighting the modern finishes throughout. A standout feature of this property is the self-sustainable granny flat, complete with a bath, living area, kitchen, and separate bedroom. This versatile space offers endless possibilities, from a private retreat for guests to a potential source of rental income, all while promoting a sustainable lifestyle. The exterior of the property is just as impressive, with thoughtfully landscaped gardens providing a serene backdrop for outdoor entertainment or a tranquil space for relaxation. The home's location in New Norfolk adds to its appeal, with the town known for its picturesque landscapes, historic sites, and a welcoming community, making it an ideal place for those looking to balance rural tranquility with easy access to urban conveniences. 17 Circle St is more than just a home; it's a gateway to a lifestyle of comfort, sustainability, and community. Embrace the opportunity to make your mark in one of Tasmania's most cherished towns.
