Entertaining is just the beginning with this beautiful 370m² fully insulated, cement rendered home, sitting only minutes from a Pristine patrolled sandy beach, 4WD access, boat ramp, local shops, school and approx 20 minutes to Bundaberg Central. Property features: Solar system, solar hot water, a grand front entrance, open plan living with raised ceilings, modern spacious kitchen with ducted air conditioning and tiles throughout. Three/four king size bedrooms with built in wardrobes, carpet and the master bedroom boasts separate his and her walk-in wardrobes. There are his and her vanities, shower, toilet and luxurious spa bath in the ensuite. The main bathroom offers double vanity, shower and a deep bath with a separate toilet. There are built in cupboards in both family room and 18m² professional office. The office could be utilized as a fourth king size bedroom or media room. The entertaining room or man cave has raised ceilings, built in bar with pool table included and adjoins the 98m² back covered entertaining area with laundry and additional toilet and overlooks the sparkling inground saltwater pool, established gardens and horse paddocks. There is a remote-control panel lift door on the extended double garage with attached double carport and single high clearance carport, plus extra sheds and carport at the rear, providing space for 7 plus vehicles and convenient entry to the property is through an automatic front gate. There is an abundant supply of water to the home, a good-sized dam, horse shelter and round yard, dog fenced housed yard, chook pens, bird aviaries, established gardens and many more. This stunning property is situated in the ever-popular Kingston Park Estate and is certain to impress!!
