Don't miss your opportunity to view this charismatic, newly renovated home in Pinjarra on a massive 845sqm block! The front of the property has good street presence with landscaped and manicured gardens and lots of room for your cars and toys with side access to a massive 3 phase powered workshop at the rear of the property. As you walk in through the front door you have your family room to the front of the property which meets a bright kitchen with grey and white décor which modernises the space. Plenty of bench and cupboard space for you to work with. You will notice all internal walls have been painted on your journey down the hallway down to the bedrooms and renovated bathroom in the same modern coloured décor which looks amazing. The rear end of the property is huge with reticulated gardens, patio for entertaining. This home is not one to miss, call today for your viewing as we have had a lot of interest. Andrea Vucic has a wealth of experience and a proven track record of success, making her the go-to agent for market sales. Don't miss out on your chance to work with Andrea.
