Experience the very essence of classic Paddington living with this smartly presented Victorian-era terrace. The interior layout has been well preserved and maintained to offer a fresh and bright period home where charm, light and urban convenience all come together really well. It also enjoys an unbeatable lifestyle location just a short distance to local dining, cafés and Centennial Park, with Allianz Stadium, the SCG and Fox Studios all easily accessible by foot.- The bright layout features a separate lounge room and dining area- Many character details with original fireplaces and timber flooring- Easy-to-maintain leafy courtyard and outdoor entertainment space- A well-equipped skylit kitchen with gas cooktop and great storage- Two upstairs bedrooms include a main with traditional lacework terrace- Both bedrooms have air-conditioning, ceiling fans, built-ins and balcony- Presented in excellent condition with lots of scope to further update
