On one of Armadale's most desired streets, behind a sleek monochrome façade, an enchanting contemporary renovation has graced this period home with light filled, flowing spaces that come beautifully appointed and exquisitely finished with high end quality and luxurious style. From the point of entry, stylish timber floors create movement through to the garden via the open plan living zone, drenched in natural light. Refined bespoke cabinetry complements the vibrant spaces for dining, relaxing and entertaining, creating flexible zones for casual dining, study and storage, plus a bar area. An elevated kitchen confirms entertaining potential with twin Miele ovens, integrated appliances and a striking marble island. Three generous bedrooms include the ensuite main with walk in robe and a chic bathroom, complemented by the lavish main bathroom and a study that could be used as a fourth bedroom if desired. Includes a sun-drenched timber deck, heating and cooling, automatic gated entry and parking.
