Delivering a choice of opportunities to a varied range of buyers, this partially renovated two-bedder holds some modern appeal and you'll instantly recognise the potential to easily add value either now or down the track. Renovated where it counts with the kitchen and bathroom both ready to enjoy, and holding the charms of an original home, all the foundations are in place to further transform the property into something special. Ideal for a young couple looking to get a foothold into the market, or a terrific long-term investment, here is a blank canvas base needing some work and located only 2km from Cessnock CBD. - Weatherboard and iron construction requiring some external repair - Updated kitchen with a raked ceiling, exposed beams and timber floorboards - Huge updated bathroom with bath, shower, glossy floor tiles and laundry facilities - Two double-sized bedrooms featuring pressed metal ceilings and neutral tones - Covered rear deck and room to extend the home's footprint into the level yard (STCA) - Within 2km of shopping centres, cafes, clubs, local schools, and all the services of a large town
