Are you tired of seeing the same old cookie-cutter coastal homes on the market? Are you over reading the same boring real estate jargon telling you that every home is stunning and amazing? Then say hello to 17 Lowanna Drive, Ashmore! A home that is a little bit different – and we absolutely love it! Escape the ordinary and embrace a Mediterranean-inspired lifestyle where Tuscan charm meets modern comfort in a truly unique property that stands out from the crowd! Let's take a quick look around.... Entry is into a large family lounge with soaring raked ceilings. Timber floors and ceilings work in synergy with the cedar plantation shutters and wrought iron chandelier for a warm and inviting feel. A solid staircase leads you to the mezzanine level, where you'll find a meals area adjacent to the gourmet modern kitchen. Here 20mm stone waterfall benchtops, 2pak soft close cabinetry and an array of as-new Westinghouse appliances will facilitate your culinary adventures! The master bedroom offers a true retreat with mirrored his and her sliding robes complete with cabinetry and a luxe ensuite with floor to ceiling travertine tiles, feature LED lighting and custom timber cabinetry. Additional bedrooms, including a loft bedroom that would make any teenager proud, provide ample space for family or guests. They're serviced by a sparkling bathroom, complete with floor to ceiling tiles, an open shower and a standalone claw foot tub. It's lower level of the home, where the entertaining abilities of this property burst to life. A large family or rumpus room offers a myriad of possibilities, while a tiled living area leads out to the awesome covered alfresco dining space. Sitting on a massive deck overlooking the crystal clear pool, this stunning area comes complete with a barbeque kitchen that has inbuilt fridges, a sink, a TV and a stacked stone feature wall. It has summer fun written all over it! This home is more than just a property; it's a lifestyle waiting to be experienced. It's about mornings spent sipping coffee on the front porch, afternoons lounging by the pool, and evenings entertaining friends and family under the stars. It's about creating memories and living life to the fullest. Escape the ordinary and embrace the extraordinary at 17 Lowanna Drive. This home is like the gift that keeps on giving, there is so much more to see and know and we'd love to show you around this special property. Got any questions? Want to take a look for yourself?
