Set back from the street on a large north-facing allotment is a wonderfully renovated 3-bedroom home with beautiful views and a separate home office/teenager retreat. Retaining its character appeal with decorative cornices, an open fireplace, and spacious bedrooms, the renovations have opened up the house and welcomed in sunlight. Top-quality floor tiles grace the hallway, kitchen, meals, family, and dining rooms, complementing lush carpets in the lounge and 3 bedrooms (the master with built-in robes and split system heating and cooling). Enjoying garden views from every window, the modern family and meals area adjoins a brilliant modern kitchen boasting Caesarstone benches, soft-close cabinetry, and quality stainless steel appliances (gas cooktop, 900mm oven, and dishwasher). Fully tiled, the inclusive bathroom features twin basins, a bath, and a large shower, complementing a separate laundry room and two separate storerooms. A covered upstairs balcony and backyard patio offer serene outdoor areas enveloped by greenery. An under-house garage has been transformed into a fitted home office with a split system for comfort year-round. Such a versatile space could be anything your family needs it to be! Further highlights include gas-ducted heating, an air conditioner in the main living room, and reverse-cycle split systems in the home office and kitchen/meals area. Within proximity are Pinemont kindergarten, Ringwood Heights primary school, and Ringwood bowling club, with quick access to Eastland, Ringwood train station, and EastLink.
