This stunning custom-designed five-bedroom contemporary home in tightly held Crestwood Estate, Port Macquarie is what dreams are made of. Welcome to 17 Richwood Ridge - 422sqm of modern family living with every comfort you could imagine - sparkling heated swimming pool/spa, sprawling undercover entertaining zone, fire pit, ducted air-conditioning, light-filled, north-facing, solar, tropical landscaping - this property is a true gem. The ground floor contains the impressive galley kitchen, with stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances, a spacious butler's pantry with ample storage, and an open-plan dining and living area with an eye-catching stone-feature wall and fireplace. A separate media room offers the perfect multi-function space. A central timber staircase is a real focal point and leads you to the second storey, where a glamorous master suite with a large walk-in wardrobe, beautiful bathroom timber cabinetry, study nook, retreat and four more bedrooms with built-ins await. There is space for every member of the family to take time out and come together. Step outside and into your private sanctuary where the massive entertaining area, complete with mature landscaping, overlooks the 8.5m tiled pool. This spacious zone provides the perfect backdrop to your next holiday at home and capitalises on Port Macquarie's famous temperate climate. Located 7km from the centre of Port Macquarie, 5km from Lighthouse Beach and just minutes from a selection of primary and secondary schools, and health services, this home is truly something special.
