Introducing a spacious double storey home with a lucrative addition - a one-bedroom self-contained studio with its own private access. The sought-after Caroline Bay location ensures it is within walking distance of shops, schools, professional and medical services, and multiple bus stops. The home character-filled home has both the kitchen and bathroom in good original condition. There are multiple living areas throughout offering versatility and space for the whole family and the extended family. With light, bright interiors, a fully-fenced and level yard with both grassed areas and an inground pool, this property is the setting for a great family-friendly lifestyle. The double garage has internal access to the home, and there is a garden shed for storage. Generating an impressive $1,100 per week in rent, on an expired lease with tenants who are willing to stay on, this property promises not only comfortable spacious living but also excellent investment potential.
