The estate is centrally positioned within the fast emerging suburb of Hilbert and will feature a town centre, new primary and secondary schools, parklands and significant sporting and recreational areas.The proximity to the major shopping centres, community amenities and services in nearby Armadale, Canning Vale, Byford and Cockburn are a bonus. There are established primary and secondary schools to choose from, The Wungong River is nearby, a selection of quality golf courses are close enough to test your game, and there are great choices for those who enjoy horse riding activities. The construction of a daycare centre within the estate has received development approval. What a Bonus for Young Families!Access to the Tonkin Highway is only 900 metres away making travel time short, fast and easy to the surrounding regions and to Perth city. For train commuters, there is close connectivity starting west bound at Armadale with links beyond, or from stations like Cockburn Central on the north-south Mandurah line. Naturally, frequent bus services operate on main arterial roads throughout the district. It all brings travel and public transport together perfectly.* Check if you qualify for a government grant!* Attention Builders!
