Located in the heart of central sunshine and offered for the first time in over 60 years stands this warm and nostalgic 1950s weatherboard home. Filled with lots of character & set on a block of approx 526sqm this is the ideal place to raise a family and call home. Comprising: 3 spacious bedrooms, east facing living room, central family bathroom, study zone, fully equipped kitchen/meals area, separate laundry & 2 toilets. Outside you'll find a low maintenance manicured garden that's been well loved over the years. A great place to entertain all year round. Further features include freshly polished timber floors, air-conditioner, gas heating, BIRs, ceiling fan, garden shed, lock up garage and carport accommodating for ample cars off the street. All set within a neighborhood friendly pocket with a real sense of community close to Sunshine marketplace, 5 minutes to Sunshine train station, Ballarat Road bus stops almost at your doorstep and only 13kms to Melbourne's CBD this beauty is a clear winner when it comes to location, lifestyle & opportunity.
