Haven't found what you are looking for, why compromise when you can build your own? Introducing a rare and ever-dwindling parcel of vacant land situated in a sought after quiet enclave of Kiama. Capturing a serene leafy outlook with sweeping rural vista, views of the rolling green hills of Saddleback Mountain and even potential for ocean views, this parcel is one of the few remaining blocks with a stunning outlook and is sure to be popular. Kiama is one of the most sought-after towns on the South Coast - a family friendly destination with beautiful beaches and endless activities. Whether you enjoy surfing, swimming, fishing, playing golf or prefer to relax at a local café, it's all right at your fingertips. This elevated block is north facing and has full services available and ready to be connected. With land in short supply conveniently located less than 2km from Kiama's famous local beaches, cafés, shops, and schools, this unique opportunity to build your very own dream home in a highly sought-after location, is an opportunity not to be missed as this land will be sold!
