This beautifully presented property sits on approximately 2000m² of land in a quality Cardigan location. The house features four bedrooms, the generous master itself having his and hers walk-in robes, luxury en-suite with 1800mm shower, double vanity and separate toilet. The remaining three bedrooms have built-in robes and adjoin a separate living zone and full family bathroom. At the hub of the home is the light filled open plan kitchen, dining and family living zone. The kitchen has stone benchtops, butlers pantry, ample cabinetry, 900mm cooking and dishwasher. There is sliding door access to both the undercover alfresco area and to the expansive decked entertaining area. The front formal lounge, study nook and laundry room make up the internal space of the home. The home is well serviced by gas central heating, evaporative cooling and split-system unit. Outside showcases manicured established gardens with water reticulation to the front gardens whilst the rear yard has side access to the 12m x 7m shed complete with water and three-phase power, fruit trees and enough space for all family pursuits. Located close to Lucas shopping precinct, schools and sporting facilities this wonderful property could be your families next Dream Home. Contact Liam to discuss further.
