Families in search of a spacious forever home will adore this warm and welcoming 4-bedroom 2-bathroom residence. A spacious layout, light-filled interiors and a sprawling backyard come together to create a home where there's room for the whole family to move in, spread out and relax. The generous lounge and dining area create a peaceful retreat, with north-facing floor-length windows filling the space with natural light. The large open plan family room connects the updated kitchen featuring Westinghouse stainless steel appliances, large pantry and a breakfast bar with an additional living space, big enough for both lounging and meals. Glass sliding doors open onto the spectacular outdoor area. Designed with Canberra's seasons in mind, the entertaining terrace is sheltered and elevated, making the most of the stunning views. Soak in the rainbow of autumn leaves, enjoy the dappled winter sunshine streaming through the pergola, or relax on the lawn in summer, shaded by the beautiful canopy of maple, elm and elder trees. The generous master bedroom features wrap-around windows, wall-to-wall built-in robes, and an immaculate ensuite. There's plenty of room for the rest of the family with three additional queen bedrooms, a large family bathroom and a separate study. With a nearby nature reserve, playgrounds and ovals you'll never be short of family activities. You're also easy walking distance to three great schools and the local shop, with a bus stop at the end of the street and the Calwell shops down the road. This much loved family home is a true sanctuary for growing families. Act quickly to secure this fabulous home before it's too late.
