Just listed! This is a well maintained character home in a highly sought after street in South Perth. Stunning from the moment you walk through the front gate, the property has beautiful polished Jarrah floorboards throughout in the front main living areas and kitchen/dining. Beautiful ornate ceilings throughout the home. Front formal lounge or sitting area, flows onto the modern kitchen and dining that has been renovated in keeping with the classic feel of the house. Master bedroom has floorboards and has built in robes. Towards the back of the property is the second main living area flowing onto the other two bedrooms, laundry and main bathroom servicing the house. The bathroom includes a toilet, separate shower and freestanding claw foot bath perfect for a soak after a long hard day. Second bedroom has built in robes, with the third one being versatile as a home office or bedroom. Simple backyard with easy care gardens and lawns, with spacious alfresco area just waiting for you to entertain with friends and family. Large shed for all your storage needs. Reverse cycle air conditioning to the two main living areas and gas bayonet in the decorative fire place area. Located just off Angelo street, it is within walking distance to Wesley College, Angelo street cafe/ shopping strip and close to public transport. Pets Considered.
