Encompassed within an abundance of native birds & wildlife sits this architectural masterpiece. Created to compliment the surrounding bushland, this property sits on 2.48ha of low maintenance pristine bushland in the tightly held enclave of Hungry Head. Designed by renowned architect, Rosalie Stollery, the home radiates warm energy with a magnificent timber lined atrium which draws you into the open plan lounge, dining & kitchen area with cozy fireplace. The light-filled room flows freely onto the rear entertaining deck to allow the outdoors in and is the perfect choice for keen wildlife watchers or those wishing for privacy. Featuring 2 good size bedrooms, main with luxury tiled bathroom, beautiful timber floorboards throughout, study area & double lock up garage, the home oozes character. With scope to extend, add the pool or shed. Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, the property is located a short 1.5km to glistening Schnapper Beach. Enjoy the birds singing, an early morning surf or walk along the beach or cozy up around the fireplace in the evenings. All this awaits new owners looking for a creative sanctuary. Other Property Features:--☑Freshly painted internally.☑Solar Hot Water☑Solar back to grid - 2kw inverter☑22,000 litre water tank- BAL 29
