This terrific family home has both dual living or income opportunities. Set in the heart of the Caldera at Tyalgum with its array of arts and sports inspired community events. Village living is all about involvement and nestled here on a very quiet street with great neighbours you are just minutes walk to all local amenities including cafes, a traditional country pub with great food and entertainment, it even has its very own swimming pool!, you will be in the heart of it all. The home has a relaxed, comfortable feel and the low maintenance backyard has a special undercover gazebo area where you can enjoy alfresco dining or a glass of your favourite tippie as you enjoy the views to Mount Warning. Welcome home to the peace and quiet of village life where you will be just 25 minutes drive to the bustling country town of Murwillumbah.
