From its striking facade, step into luxury living with this stunning and spacious family home. As you enter you'll be greeted with an oversized formal front lounge setting the scene of comfort and style which continues throughout the home. Comprising four bedrooms, including a master suite with ensuite facilities, this home offers practical amenities and a well-thought-out design. The remaining three bedrooms are equipped with built-in robes, complemented by an additional bathroom and separate toilet for guest use. The gourmet-style kitchen is a chef's delight, featuring a grand stone bench, a wooden feature breakfast bar, an integrated dishwasher, and a walk-in pantry offering amazing storage solutions. Designed with open-plan living in mind, the heart of the home seamlessly flows into the family-sized meals and living room, where timber stacker doors invite the outdoors in, bathing the space in natural light. Enjoy a spacious and versatile floor plan, incorporating two distinct living areas to accommodate various lifestyle needs. Evaporative cooling and ducted heating ensure year-round comfort within the property. The low-maintenance backyard provides a private retreat for outdoor relaxation and entertainment. Strategically positioned within a short walk of Bannum Walk Primary School, this home offers convenience for families. The Kalkallo North Community Center is just a brief drive away, enhancing accessibility to local amenities. Nearby educational institutions include Hume Anglican Grammar Kalkallo and Gilgai Primary School, both easily accessible within a few minutes' drive. Local daycare facilities are also conveniently located within a short distance. This supreme buy is under 5 minutes drive to local Woolworths in the town center. This property represents an excellent opportunity for families seeking a contemporary home in a well-connected and family-friendly neighborhood. With its thoughtful layout, practical features, and proximity to essential services and educational institutions, 17 Zelkova Street epitomizes comfortable and convenient living.
